FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

Your Questions, Answered

What fitness level do I need?

Stages run about 20–30 km (12–19 miles) over rolling terrain. Anyone in good health who walks regularly can do it. Train with 10–15 km walks beforehand.

What should I pack?

Broken-in walking shoes, moisture-wicking layers, a light rain jacket, and a 15–20L daypack. A full packing list is sent once you book.

Can dietary needs be accommodated?

Yes. Tell us at booking; vegetarian, gluten-free, and other common needs are easily arranged.

Do I need to speak Spanish?

No. Your host handles every booking and arrangement along the way, so language is never a barrier.

How do I earn my Compostela?

Walk at least the final 100 km and collect two stamps per day in your credential. We provide the credential and your host shows you where to stamp.

Will I have my own room?

Prices are per person, two sharing. Solo travelers can request the Private Room Supplement ($750); rooms are limited, so request early.

How do I get to Sarria?

Fly into Santiago (SCQ), about 1.5 hours away. Your Day 1 airport pickup from SCQ to Sarria is included.

Can I arrive early or stay later?

Yes. Add a night in Sarria ($180) or Santiago ($289 shared, $529 single), or the Finisterre & Muxía Excursion ($165), which runs the day after the Pilgrim Mass and requires an extra night in Santiago.
